FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Licensee Education on Alcohol and Drugs Training for Alcohol Retailers in the City of San Bernardino

San Bernardino - California Office of Alcohol Beverage Control (ABC) will conduct Licensee Education on Alcohol and Drugs (LEAD) Trainings for owners, managers and employees who sell or serve alcohol in the City of San Bernardino. These free trainings are certified by the State of California and include information related to state and local alcohol laws, liabilities, community standards, checking ID, identifying and refusing sales to minors, and identifying and refusing sales to intoxicated persons.

Businesses will have an opportunity to attend one of two trainings. The first is scheduled for November 16, for On-Sale Alcohol Licensees including restaurants, bars, and clubs. The second training is scheduled for November 23, for Off-Sale Alcohol Licensees, including grocery, convenience and liquor stores. These trainings are sponsored by the County of San Bernardino Department of Public Health and the City of San Bernardino to promote responsible alcohol sales during the upcoming holiday season.

Both training sessions are from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at San Bernardino City Hall, 300 North D Street, in the basement conference room. Complimentary parking is provided on the 5th floor parking structure next to City Hall. Participants will receive a 2-year LEAD certification issued by ABC. Since seating is limited to 50 people, participants are urged to register by calling (909) 387-6280.
